

1. Ideas and Ideologies	2. First World War	3. Russian Revolution	4. Second World War	5. Holocaust	6. Post Second World War	Decolonisation	Case Studies	The Windrush	Creation of the NHS	Second Wave Feminism	Who started the Cold War?	Cold War in Britain	Espionage
--------------------------------	---------------------------	------------------------------	----------------------------	---------------------	---------------------------------	----------------	--------------	--------------	---------------------	----------------------	---------------------------	---------------------	-----------

Key Word	Definition
Empire	An extensive group of countries ruled over by a single monarch or state
Monopoly	A situation where there is no competition for trade
Imperialism	The policy of extending a country's power and influence through colonization
Nationalism	Supporting ones country above all else
Direct Rule	Part of an empire controlled by a single central government
Indirect Rule	Governed people retaining certain powers whilst controlled by another country
Trading Companies	Trading body for English Merchants to trade with other parts of the Empire
Colony	A country or area under full or partial control of another country
Decolonisation	The undoing of building a colony – granting previous parts of an empire independence
Push Factor	Something bad pushing you away from an area
Pull Factor	Something good encouraging you to move to an area
The Windrush	The name of the boat carrying migrants to Britain in 1948
NHS	The National Health Service – the name of the Health Care provision in Britain paid for from taxes
Feminism	The advocacy of women's rights based on equality of the sexes
Communism	A system of government where everything is centrally owned and controlled
Capitalism	A system where a countries trade and industry are privately owned for profit
Escalation	An increase or in the intensity or seriousness of something
Sanctions	A way of enforcing a decision for example by means of a trade boycott.
Superpower	A country or state that has great influence or power globally
Containment	Using influence and military resources to prevent the expansion of Communism into non Communist countries.
Propaganda	Information, especially of a biased or misleading nature, used to promote a political cause or point of view.
Espionage	The practise of spying

Key People

Neville Chamberlain

Josef Stalin

Clement Attlee

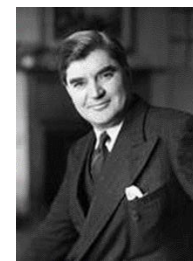

Harry Truman

Winston Churchill

FD Roosevelt

Aneurin Bevan

The Cambridge 5

You might like to read...

- The House of One Thousand Eyes by Michelle Barker (2018)
- Roses Sees Red by Cecil Castellucci (2010)
- Last Night at the Telegraph Club by Malinda Lo (2021)
- Walls by L M Elliott (2021)
- Alice Paul and the Fight for Women's Rights by Deborah Cops (2017)
- Amazons, Abolitionists and Activists. A graphic history of the fight for women's rights by Mikki Kendall (2019)
- Windrush Child by Benjamin Zephaniah (2020)
- Coming to England by Floella Benjamin (1995)
- The Story of the Windrush by K.M. Chimbiri (2018)
- The Empire Windrush by Clive Gifford (2014)
- Aunt Gen by Paulette Ramsey (2002)
- George (The Teenage Years) by Gilly 2017)

