- Edward became king of England in 1042 after his half brother died. Before this he had been living in Normandy.
- Edward married but had no children. It was not clear who Edward wanted to be king after him. For a king to die without an heir was a disaster!

PETAL paragraph

P: One reason why William won the Battle of Hastings was luck.

E: Evidence for this is the wind changed direction allowing William and his army to invade on the 28th of September. Harold Godwinson and his army were still in the North of England.

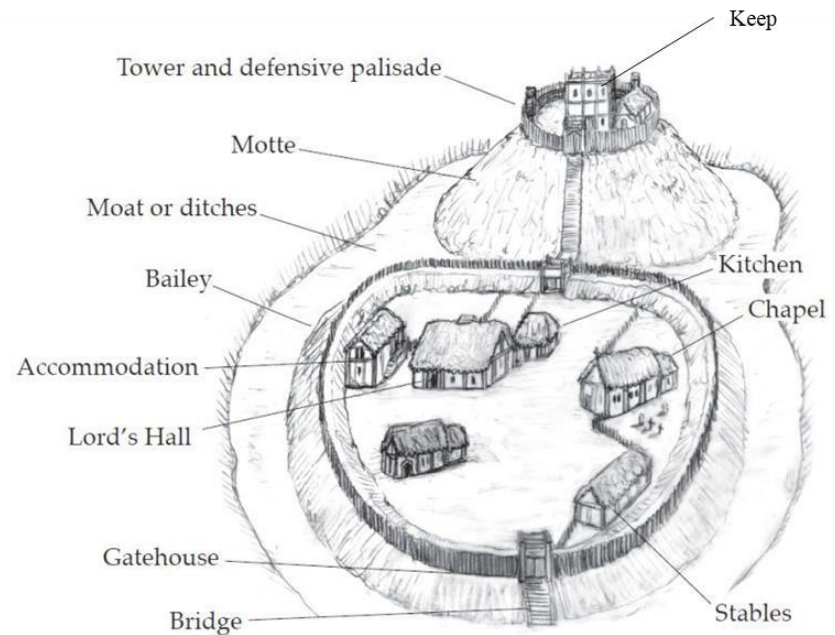

Due to the wind changing William was able to invade after the Battle of Stamford Bridge.

T: This meant that, many of Harold's housecarls had been killed.

A: As a result, William had an advantage and managed to defeat Harold's untrained fyrd.

L: Therefore, luck was the main reason William was able to win the Battle of Hastings.
